

Behold Beauty

Profile

Maximus
Rockford

I'm a photo editor majorly focusing on wedding photography. I offer a custom and dedicated service, supporting color correction and retouching solutions for rapidly growing professionals.

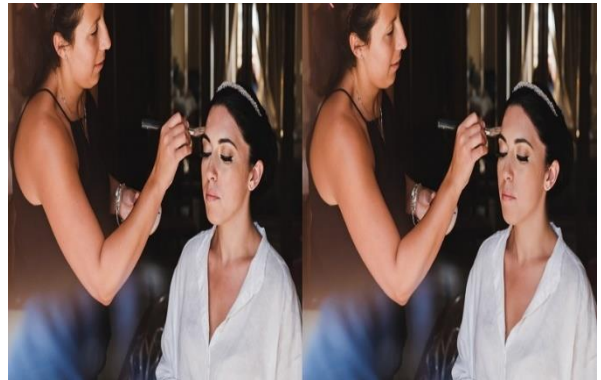

With over 7 years of experience in the industry, I have expertise of handling multiple styles and variations in tasks. I assist clients in several countries belonging to different cultures, which helps me gain adaptability to a global perspective of photography.

Over the years I have developed the skill to turnaround photos in a quick time range, meeting the best quality standards while following all client instructions. I consider my devotion and dedication for photography adds, the magic touch in the resulting images.

Portfolio

Portfolio

Portfolio

I have commissioned Maximus for editing work on a number of occasions and have never been disappointed with the service. His editing has been able to complete some great work for me within budget and on time. I will continue to use Maximus in the future.

Paul Greenwood

Just want to say how pleased I am with your work Maximus. Initially I would use your service to correct a few photos but now everything goes to you first. Even photos I think are good come back significantly better.

David Casey

What my

Clients

Say

Michaela Eliáš

I am impressed with the images. I really appreciate his smart communication and helpfulness. He cares about the clients requirements and expectations. I am ready to work with him again.

Tonio Lombardi

I have worked with Maximus on wedding color correction. He is attentive to his clients. He understands my needs and executes orders accordingly and perfectly!

Check Charges

Considering how important it is to maintain consistency, I provide the benefit of being your own personal editor. I complete all orders myself unlike a company which may have a different editor work on your photos depending upon availability.

Behold Beauty

Click
Here